

Daily Racing Form

VOL. IV. NO. 58.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE NEW HANDICAP FIGURES.

DAILY RACING FORM will hereafter give figures on the horses in each field at each track in addition to "form." The figures, after the horses in entries, will show the estimate of office calculation. The "form" will be that of mere opinion about the fields, as it always has been. The new system was tried in Tuesday's paper. It worked sluggishly. That was natural. But it is genuine and systematic; will improve as it goes along and is worth future following. Form players are advised to let the figures run about ten days and then try them. The idea is that of frankness and simplicity. Its object is that of giving the public the result of the office work as to the application of the past running of the horses to the sharp future—the races of the day of publication.

A CALIFORNIA FABLE.

Ed Corrigan wires to DAILY RACING FORM that the story wired from San Francisco last Tuesday about him quarreling with and striking President Andrews was false and malicious. Messrs. Corrigan and Andrews had a difference about racing conditions, but it was adjusted without bitterness or fisticuffs.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

T. W. Coulter's stable, which has been wintering at La Belle Farm in charge of J. A. Kelly, was shipped to Louisville on Tuesday, March 1. It comprises the following horses:

phine.

Rosie Burke is the talk of the track. She is a gook-looking filly with a wonderful flight of speed.

NOT IN LOVE WITH BURNS.

A lot of silly rot is going the rounds about what a fierce contest there is going to be on the American turf this season between Tod Sloan and Tommie Burns for the lightweight supremacy.
According to advices from New Orleans, Burns' admirers are confident he can hold his own with Sloan, and point to his wonderful record at the Crescent City track this winter in justification for holding him in such high estimation. However, they overlook the very important fact that with the exception of Burns and Scherrer, the jockeys at New Orleans this season amounted to nothing. It's easy enough for Master Burns to ride rings around a lot of cooks, but when he runs up against the star riders of the big tracks it will be entirely different.
Master Burns has never ridden in the east, where the first class riders hold forth. When he goes out there its dollars to doughnuts they make him look like a dunce. The idea of comparing him with a finished rider like Sloan, who has taken two continents by storm, is simply ridiculous. Tod has probably forgotten more about the science of the game than Burns will ever know, if he lives to be a century plant.
Sloan is a natural-born artist in the saddle, and seems to have been fitted by nature for riding.
He never has any trouble keeping down to weight and is always in shape to ride as low as 95 pounds. Burns is, of course, a good rider, but his admirers should not overestimate his capabilities. Before attempting to class him with a boy of Sloan's caliber they should wait and see what sort of showing he makes when he goes east and stacks up against Taral, Doggett, Skeets and Willie Martin, Simms, Clayton and the rest of the first class riders. These are the kind of riders Sloan has been putting it over for the past two years. The will come pretty near making Master Tommie wish he had stuck to the western game.—St. Louis Republic.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dr. A. C. Bernays thinks he has the finest looking 2-year-old at the Fair Grounds. The youngster is a bay colt by Bersan—Flying Rumor, and is called Flying Word. He is an unusually well-developed horse for his age and is credited with having exhibited a rare turn of speed. Dr. Bernays says this youngster is the most promising horse he ever owned. Flying Word is well engaged in stakes all over the country.

In race No. 4457, run last Saturday at Ingleside, Cal., H. Martin rode Joe Ullman and Tod Sloan won't dance. DAILY RACING FORM's charts had Sloan on Ullman and Martin on Dance. There was much dispute about the matter. Barney Schreiber was asked to decide it.
He did so by telegraph, as above.

A. A. S., Detroit, Mich.—The Montana tracks always use the mutual system. It was also—as the block system—used on the Ohio-Kentucky tracks last year.

H. M.—In the case mentioned Lincoln II was the "entry" and of course you lost.

Winner—Ch. g, 4, by Cassatt—Brigand Girl.
Start good. Won easily. The next seven were driving. Stoutter was best. His race was above the mark. He was lucky and well ridden. Star ran an excellent race. Watch him. He is fit. Sutton was hardly ready and not well ridden. He closed strong from a bad beginning.
Tab him. Also tab William O'B. He is ready, was cut off on first and stretch turns. Howard was short. The race will fit him. He's a sprinter only. Sardou favors a route. State, used too much, quit at the finish. Don't Know is of no present account. Richard, a crazy horse, away poorly, had an easy race.
Scratched—Velo, 107.
Change in weight—Judge Stoutter, 3 pounds off.

Winner—Br. c, by Sir Modred—Glorianne.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. Glorian was best. His race was above the par of the past.
He is best at a route, lucky and well ridden. Elmore is a sprinter. He quit at end, but is ready.
Tab him. Frio ran his race. Saticoy should be tabbed. He is a sprinter and was not well handled. Arrow is best at a distance. He closed strong. Suscol favors mellow going and distance off. Yule ran a dull race. York can be tabbed. He was vily ridden and cut off on first and stretch turns. Alarm was used too much and ran out.
Scratched—Oahu, 105; Twinkler, 110; Charles Lebel, 107; The Dipper, 115.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Maxim—Parthenia.
Start good. Won easily. Parthemax was far the best. He had all the bad luck of the race and overcame it, finishing like a lion. Was shut off on the first and stretch turns. Pry was a bit short. The race will fit him. Put him on the tab. Benamela wasn't suited by the footing.
He is ready, though. Watch Daylight for mud. Throw out Tierra's race. It doesn't fit at all.
Clarencio was badly ridden, cut off on first and stretch turns and eased up at the end. Throw out his race and tab him for the next.

lot over her last performance. The race will sharpen her. She was lucky and beautifully ridden.
Refugee ran his race and closed stoutly. He was none too well handled. Montallade was coming and not ridden well. Tab him. He is fit. McLight was sore, short and away badly. Imperious is of sharp account only in mud. He is ready and was eased at the end. Cabrillo ran a Start good. Won with a lot to spare. Valenciennne was the best and luckiest. Friend was cut off on first turn, poorly ridden and closed in stout fashion. Abina can be tabbed as disliking weight. Ace favors a route and closed strong. Ping was lame. Will do best on hard going. Hertha had some speed. Watch her.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Order—Hoyden.
Start fair. The first six were hard driven. Chappie was luckiest. He had a clear course. Cook was second best, but not well ridden. He is ready. Watch him. Miss Ross was a good horse at finish. So was Dream. Her race was far above the notch. Murphy is only worth consideration in soft going. He was a false favorite. Spray was perhaps best at finish. He was sharply impeded on the first and stretch turns. Watch William. He is ripe. Mascota was vilely ridden.
